Will Rey's Mission: Sow seeds of success in the hearts of young men.

- What I intended to do as a coach can be done well at any level.
- It's not about where you are planted, it's about blooming where you've been planted!

What were you willing to be fired for?

- Running a program with integrity, graduate players, and demand much of them!

How did you handle the pressures from the outside to get results?

- The pressure I put on myself was always more than the pressure people put on me from the outside.
- Success and prestige as a coach combined with a transformational philosophy strengthens the message and impact. Winning supports our purpose.

How did you come upon your purpose as a coach?

- Never was an "aha moment", but instead a gradual awakening.
- There has to be a greater purpose than this!

Where can we find peace in coaching?

- It's a lifelong process to discover our purpose and find our fulfilment from our mission as a coach to impact lives.
- If you see the transformational aspect of coaching, keep drilling down your purpose. Keep asking these questions!

Sharing in the Journey Together

- Tells players, “the reason I am talking about character is because I am trying to grow as well”. It’s not just about you becoming a better person, it’s about me growing as well.
- You need to want the journey to be as transformational for you as it is for me.

The Trophies Come to Represent People

- You start to understand it comes down to the relationships.
